

PTA Weekly News w/e 8July 2022

SUMMER FAIR – TODAY IS THE DAY!!

We are very excited and we hope that you and your children are too and are ready to come along and have a wonderful time!

Cake & Sweet Treat donations - Thank you for your donations this morning for our Cake Stall – if you still need to give in your donations, please do so by 3pm pick up time to the office.

Clarendon Cake Competition – Thank you for your entries so far, if you are still to hand your entry in please do so by 3pm to the office. Please ensure this is labelled with the ingredients and has your name and child's class on it. Judging will occur prior to the fair and you should be prepared for your homemade item to be sold. Winners will be announced at the fair and prizes given!

Afternoon, volunteers needed from 1pm or 3pm+

If you have volunteered to help set-up and/or cover a stall then will have received information about when and where you are needed – if you are not sure please contact Debbie Hann

- We do have a couple of stall shifts left to cover for breaks etc - please could you contact Debbie on the PTA email if you are able to help - shift 1: 6-7:15pm and shift 2: 7:15-8:30pm -

- Please note - there are no after-school clubs however The Haven is still open as usual -

6pm - Summer Fair officially open!

Entrance will be through the right-hand side gate as you look at the school building (where we used to enter the school playground in the mornings)

You will be greeted at the Entrance by our wonderful PTA volunteers and Mr Neale.

There is a £1 entrance fee for adults - children are free.
